

What is your municipality doing about Accessory Dwelling Units?

On June 1, 2017, the new state law regulating Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) goes into effect and many communities' current regulations will no longer be valid. Rockingham Planning Commission is hosting a workshop for municipal officials to help communities understand and comply with the new law. The workshop is free, but registration is requested. To register, and for additional resources about ADUs, please visit RPC's website: www.rpc-nh.org.

Where: Exeter Public Library
4 Chestnut Street,
Exeter, NH 03833

When: September 29, 2016 at 7:00 p.m.

Agenda: Welcome & Overview
– Phil Wilson, RPC Commission Chair

The Why and What of the ADU Law
– Ben Frost, Esq. NH Housing

Municipal Do's and Don'ts in Responding to the ADU Law
– Steve Buckley, Esq. NH Municipal Association

Amending Your Zoning to Address the ADU Requirements
– Glenn Greenwood, RPC Assistant Director

Questions? Visit RPC's website (www.rpc-nh.org) or call 778-0885.

